Beacon Avenue South restoration

The Beacon Avenue South restoration project reconstructed the sidewalk and roadway adjacent to Sound Transit's Beacon Hill Light Rail Station. Roadway improvements included replacement of the pavement, reconstruction of portions of sidewalks, sidewalk widening, addition of a raise roadway median and increased crosswalk width.

Mode:

Bus, Light Rail

Highlights:

Construction complete: 2014

Location: Beacon Avenue South from South McClellan Street to South Lander Street